

CHICKEN CATCHER

Georgia

Horgan

How to catch a chicken

1. Spot the chicken from across the yard.
2. Slowly walk toward the chicken without making eyecontact. ACT NORMAL.
3. As you get closer, bend your knees and tiptoe.
4. POUNCE: and grab the chicken.
5. If unsuccessful, run after the chicken, hands reaching outward.
6. Hold the chicken on its back, and put both hands over its wings.

A HOW TO COOK CHICKEN BREAST

1. First, rub the chicken with a little olive oil, salt and pepper.
  2. Heat another teaspoon of olive oil in a medium skillet over medium heat, place chicken breasts in and cook until edges are opaque, about 10 minutes.
  3. Flip to the other side, then cover the pan, lower the heat and cook for another 10 minutes.
- let the chicken rest for at least 5 minutes before you cut it.

How to swing with a chicken

1. Grab a chicken.
2. Walk over to the swingset with the chicken.
3. Make sure the chickens wings are held down so the chicken doesnt escape.
4. Reassure the chicken and make conversation.
5. Sit on the swing.
6. Place the chicken on your lap on its back with its feet in the air. Hold its stomach secure.
7. With your feet, push off the ground and begin swinging.

A HOW TO CHICKEN BURIAL

1. Dig a hole.
2. Place the deceased chicken in the hole.
3. Say a few words about the chicken.
4. Pay your respects to the chickens friends and family.
5. Cover the chicken with dirt, making sure it is evenly distributed.
6. Respectfully say goodbye to the chicken.

getting the EGGS

1. Walk to the chicken coop with a large basket.
2. Open the chicken coop door and let the chickens into the yard.
3. Go inside the coop to the egg boxes.
4. Carefully pick up each egg and place it in the basket.
5. Walk back to the house.
7. Pick up each egg out of the basket and place it in an egg carton.